How to manage workflow automations

Smart Attachments for Jira provides a series of workflow automation to automate some routine operations on your attachments and save a bit of your time on other activities.

With Smart Attachments for Jira, you can create automation for:

- conditions
- validators
- post functions