

Commits

This page contains both free and paid features. Paid features are available only under a commercial or evaluation license and are tagged with PAID.

In the Commits tab you can see the number of commits made over the last year grouped by week and detailed daily commit statistics of the selected week.

In the upper part, the interactive Commits bar chart. It displays all commits made over the last year grouped by week. Each bar represents one week. Click a bar to see a total number of commits made that week. You can use arrow keys on your keyboard to navigate from one bar to another. When you click a bar or switch from one bar to another you see changes in the scatter chart below.
