

Administrator's Guide

TeamCity Integration for Confluence is a handy tool that allows you to fetch data from your TeamCity continuous integration server and display its data in Atlassian Confluence. For correct operation, the add-on requires creation of the application link between TeamCity server and Confluence. See the next chapters for information on how to manage add-on and view data about the TeamCity activity.

- Installing the Add-on
- Creating the Application Link
- Configuring Settings