

Privacy Policy

Our general privacy policy and app-specific privacy policy, which you can find below, apply to Call Center app. Please, review both prior to using the app.

StiltSoft Call Center Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy describes the ways the app manages your data.

No Processing of Personal Data by Us

We do not collect, retrieve, transmit, record, organize, storage, alter, use, disclosure or otherwise process Personal Data.

Third Parties Collecting Your Information

This Policy does not cover the collection, processing, storage and/or use of your Information, including your Personal Data, by Atlassian (provider of Jira) or any other third-party services.

We do not control when or how third parties collect, process, store or use your Information. Please, refer to privacy policies of third parties in order to learn and understand how and when they use your information.

For example, the Atlassian Privacy Policy and the Atlassian Data Collection Policy govern use of your Information by Atlassian.

Anonymous Data Collected Automatically

The app does not collect any personal data of yours. All data is managed within your Jira and we cannot access it anyhow.

You are responsible for keeping your Jira and data secured.

Modifications

We may modify or revise this Policy at any time. Please check the most current Policy.

Privacy Related Inquiries

If, for any reason, you are concerned with the way that we may be using your Anonymous Data, you have questions about the privacy aspects of the App, please, contact us at tech-support@stiltsoft.com.
