Administrator's Guide

When you install or update our app, JIRA will automatically grant Smart Attachments for Jira the correct permissions for its scope through the atlassian-addons-project-access role. We suggest not removing it from a project permission list. Otherwise, some of the Smart Attachments components can work incorrectly. This could result in the app functionality.

Please, refer to the Atlassian documentation for more details if needed.

- Smart Attachments for Jira Server/DC - Privacy Policy
- Documentation for older versions