Suggestions

In addition to inline comments, you can use Suggestions - suggest changes on a page and let page owners decide whether to accept them. Accepted changes are automatically applied (no need to edit the page). While rejected suggestions disappear and can be tracked in page history.

In this article, we describe the use cases of Talk Suggestions more thoroughly.  $\oslash$

Add Suggestion

Viewing Page

To add a suggestion while viewing a page:

- 1. Select the text you want to suggest to change.
- 2. Choose Y in the pop-up.
- 3. Type your suggestion in the input and Save. 4. Your suggestion will be shown on the sidebar - both while viewing and editing the page.

You can comment on your suggestion, e.g., to explain why you think this change should be made.

Toggling Sidebar

Talk - Inline Comments for Confluence allow you to collapse or expand the sidebar with added talks. This is convenient when you need to hide all excess elements from the page and view the clean page.

You can collapse or expand the sidebar with talks in three ways:

- Click the button (>>> or <<<) located to the right side of your talk discussions.</li>
   Deselect or select the Show comment sidebar option.
   Press the hotkey ] (square bracket).
